

Brooke Wagner
rnb carr@msn.com
303.918.6400

---

WORK EXPERIENCE

KCNC -TV/CBS4

October 2002 --Present

Denver, CO

Monday-Friday morning and noon anchor. Warm, engaging, yet credible anchor presence. Command of the desk during breaking news and extensive off-script experience covering local and national stories, such as the Aurora theater shootings and 2012 wildfires. A positive, intelligent newsroom citizen, who sets the tone for the morning staff. Working anchor who copy edits, writes, researches, and cultivates contacts. Enterprises stories for money segment, blog, and Emmy-winning interview franchise. Active on social media platforms and in website publishing. Community involvement includes ten years and 80% success rate placing foster children in adoptive homes through “Wednesday’s Child” segments. Ambassador for blood donation, after my own life was saved by blood transfusions. Solo anchor for CBS4 News at Noon, grew newscast 60% in key demo, November 2012.

KSWB-TV

August 1999 – August 2002

San Diego, CA

Primary weeknight anchor. Also produce/anchor nightly health segment, field anchor, report regularly, and interact with the San Diego community.

KTBC-TV

June 1996 – August 1999

Austin, TX

Primary weeknight anchor. As political reporter, led extensive coverage of Governor George W. Bush administration. Produced nightly health segment and weekly “Positively Texas” feature stories. Frequent live work and investigative reports for “Seven on Your Side” consumer team.

WTAJ-TV

April 1995 – June 1996

Altoona, PA

Morning and Noon anchor/reporter. Community involvement included helping to place foster children through weekly stories and volunteer work with The March of Dimes and United Way.

KXII-TV

August 1994 – April 1995

Sherman, TX

Morning anchor, reporter and producer. Also shot, edited and reported live. Began on-air career while still in college.

EDUCATION

Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX

Graduated with Bachelor of Arts Degree in 3½ years

Student Representative to Board of Trustees

Journalism major, Latin American Studies minor (Proficient in Spanish)

Graduated Cum Laude with honors in both Liberal Arts and Communications

Senior Writer for The Daily Campus newspaper

HONORS

Multiple “Best Newscast” Heartland Emmy Awards

Emmy for Best Interview Segment

Emmy for Best Interactive News Special (Elections)

Westword Magazine “Best Morning Newscast” – Multiple Years

Colorado Association of Black Journalists, Scribes in Excellence Award, 2007

Colorado Broadcasters Association Award, Best Community Service Project "Adoption in Colorado."

AP's Bill Stout Memorial Award for Enterprise News and Spot News – Santana High School Shooting, 2001

San Diego Magazine: “50 People to Watch – 2000”

American Heart Association media award, 2000

1999-2000 Emmy nomination, Best Newscast, “WB News at Ten”

Mistress of Ceremonies, Texas Governor George W. Bush’s Inaugural Ball

Associated Press Awards for health and series reporting, 1999

SMU University Scholarship and Dallas Morning News scholarship