Career Summary

I am an eleven-time New York Emmy-nominated anchor/reporter who has worked at stations in cities around the country. I anchor three live newscasts daily for New York and New Jersey and thrive on breaking news. I also produce my own consumer segment; "Call Courtney".

Courtney Kane's personality and personal interests extend far beyond the newsroom. Courtney has a loyal following as a fitness professional and Spin teacher who puts her own unique "spin" on the social culture found inside gyms using the blog she authors; "The WorkOUT Life with Courtney Kane", mixing humor with real-life experiences; all told through the eyes of a veteran newswoman.

Courtney is also a classically trained Mezzo-Soprano who has studied in German, Italian, and French, and is also well-versed on Violin, Saxophone, and Piano.
