

LESLIE CARDÉ

SUMMARY OF SKILLS

Leslie is an award-winning writer/producer/anchor/director, who is equally at home on a network news set, producing hard-hitting feature documentaries here and abroad, writing insightful stories for newspapers, doing voice-over work for some of the biggest brands in the country, or hosting her own talk radio shows.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

New Orleans Advocate Reporter, CBS Newspath Reporter, New Orleans Magazine Reporter, WGSO Radio Talk Show Host	March 2016-Present
E! Entertainment Television Host/Executive Producer/Narrator	2013 to 2016
“California Kickin” Host/Executive Producer (syndicated in 142 markets)	2009 to 2013
First Run Features Writer, Producer, Director of “American Betrayed” film	2007 to 2009
E! Entertainment Television Host/Supervising Producer for “Infamous”	2003 to 2006
People Magazine Correspondent	2001 to 2003
Court TV Director/Writer for “LA Forensics”	1999 to 2001
HGTV Host of “Dream Builders”	1997 to 1999
WLAE Host of “New Directions with Mayor Marc Morial”	1997 to 1998
WGNO Host and Correspondent for “Real New Orleans”	1995 to 1997
WWL-TV Host of “Vital Signs”	1995 to 1997
WWL Radio Talk Show Host (3 hours daily, drive-time)	1994 to 1995
CNBC Financial News Anchor and Host of “Media Beat”	1989 to 1994
WDSU-TV 6 PM News Anchor/Health & Science Correspondent	1982 to 1989

BROADCAST AWARDS

2 Emmys, 1 Edward R. Murrow Award, 1 DuPont Award, 2 Golden Mikes, 1 Ace Award, 4 UPI Awards, 5 AP Awards, 7 New Orleans Press Club Awards, First Place Seattle Film Festival, First Place Lake Arrowhead Film Festival, First Place La Femme Film Festival, 2nd Place Sundance Film Festival, 2nd Place Toronto International Film Festival, Honorable Mention Telluride Film Festival, Top Ten Films Venice Film Festival, I-Tunes Top 50 Documentaries of the Decade Award, Script Selected - AMPAS Permanent Collection in L.A., “America Betrayed” is part of the American History curriculum at all 23 California State Universities.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Biology, VASSAR COLLEGE
Master of Science in Psychology, BOSTON UNIVERSITY
Ph.D. in Neuropsychology, UCLA